B.A./B.Sc./B.Com. Admission for academic session 2017-18

NOTIFICATION No.: 162

Dated: 21-08-2017

It is notified that a number of seats are lying vacant in some of the subjects both in Honours and Programme Courses. The interested applicants who are in valid merit list of Honours and Programme Courses of all subjects are hereby instructed to attend the 4th (Final) Phase of counselling on 23-08-2017 (Wednesday) at 10:30 AM.

- No. of seats will be announced on the spot of admission considering facts and figures of all subjects
- Applicants should keep in mind that mere calling for Counselling does not ensure any guarantee for admission.
- Applicants are once again instructed to strictly follow the above mentioned schedule of counselling and report to the College premises well within the stipulated time frame. If an applicant is unable to report on time and unable to respond when his/her name is called, he/she will not get any chance for admission at any later stage. For such cases, the decision of the college authorities will be final.
- Guardians are requested to accompany the applicants to the College premises and remain outside the College main gate till their candidate's admission is over on their scheduled date of counselling and admission. Guardians will not be allowed to enter the counselling room and no request for such will be entertained. For such cases, the decision of the Principal is final.
- Students admitted in Sem-I, who are interested in change of Courses are instructed to remain present in the Counselling Room on the above mentioned time and date.
- All admission is provisional. The College authority has the right to reject any admission in case of falsification / manipulation of documents / information / facts / figures.
